- ULI Colorado Monthly Educational Events
Hosted/ planned by varying ULI Colorado committees, open to members and non-members, focused on current topics and trends in land use and development
Frequency: 1 program every month (Thursdays) || average cost: $30-$90
- ULI Colorado Committee Meetings
Hosted by the co-chairs of the committee once per month in varying times and locations. Committee Involvement is open to all current members of ULI Colorado and spans many different focus areas and levels of activities. To get a current list of ULI Colorado committees, please visit <http://colorado.uli.org/get-involved/committee-chairs/> or email Colorado@uli.org. To join a committee, please email the chairs directly and request to be invited to the next meeting!
Frequency: 1/month at varying times and locations || average cost: free to attend as current ULI member
- ULI Colorado Mentoring Programs
These include the Real Estate Diversity Initiative (REDI), open to women and minorities in real estate, and the Partnership Forum, open to current ULI Colorado members under the age of 35. Both programs require a competitive application process and run at varying times once per year. To learn more about these programs or to apply, please visit Colorado.uli.org and go to "ULI in Action."
- ULI Colorado Holiday Party
All members are invited to attend an annual holiday party and program. Each year's party and program is different, but has a great turnout of membership, opportunities to learn about land use, and valuable networking with peers over holiday cocktails!
- ULI Colorado Emerging Trends
This program is held annually in January and forecasts expected trends and areas of opportunity in real estate and development for the year ahead. Registration always opens in early December.
Frequency: 1/year- January || average cost to attend: $30-$90 based on age, profession, and membership
- ULI Colorado Impact Awards Gala
This program takes place in the spring, every two years and recognizes those key projects who embody ULI best practices in land use. Each year, we recognize 9 finalists in 3 categories for their achievements. You may choose to submit your project to be considered for an Impact Award, attend the special evening dinner event, or both! It's one program that every member should know about!
Frequency: 1/every 2 years || average cost to attend: $195 per person; full or half tables also available
- ULI Colorado Summer Party
Hosted by the Young Leaders Group (YLG), open to all ULI Members and occasional guests. This program is just as it sounds, a large summer party in appreciation of our current members! Join us for some fun in the sun over music and beer at unique project locations.
Frequency: 1/year- summer || average cost: free!
- ULI Colorado Technical Advisory Panels & Building Healthy Places Workshops
Technical Advisory Panels (TAPs) bring ULI Colorado expertise directly into communities on tough real estate problems. Building Healthy Places workshops focus on bringing in key health components to create active, safe, and healthy places to live. ULI Colorado recruits current members for their various skill sets, based on the scope of work, however, we're always accepting resumes and emails of interest to join an upcoming TAP or Workshop. If your skills align, we will reach out to you with an invitation to participate.
Frequency: Ongoing || requires time donation of 1-2 days
